

Municipal Governance 101

Municipal Governance 101 is a series of free virtual sessions designed for potential municipal election candidates and those that want to learn more or refresh their knowledge of municipal governance.

Email:

Municipal elections are scheduled for November 9. Have you thought about running for municipal council?

Municipalities of Saskatchewan, the association that represents Saskatchewan's hometowns, including the Village of Drake, is offering free virtual sessions to residents interested in learning more about being on municipal council.

On September 1 at 6:30 p.m., join residents from other Saskatchewan villages, towns, and cities for Municipal Governance 101: Introduction to Local Government.

Learn:

- How democracy works
- The roles and responsibilities of council
- Navigating conflicts of interest
- And more

On September 10, attend an exclusive village hall session where you can ask your municipal governance questions.

Visit www.munisask.ca/events to learn more about Municipal Governance 101 and to register for these events. Have questions? Contact Katee Galandy, Events Coordinator with Municipalities of Saskatchewan, at events@munisask.ca or 306-525-4398.

Website and/or community newsletter:

Municipal elections are scheduled for November 9. Have you thought about running for municipal council?

Municipalities of Saskatchewan, the association that represents Saskatchewan's hometowns, including the Village of Drake, is offering free virtual sessions on September 1 and 10 to anyone interested in learning more about being on municipal council. In the first session, learn about the role of council, what your responsibilities are as a councillor, and more. The second session is a virtual village hall where you can ask your questions to a panel of individuals experienced in municipal governance. Visit www.munisask.ca/events to learn more and to register.

Facebook:

Do you have an interest in municipal politics? Have you thought about running for municipal council? Join the free virtual sessions hosted by Municipalities of Saskatchewan on September 1 and 10 to learn about being on municipal council. In the first session, learn about the role of council, what your responsibilities are as a councillor, and more. The second session is a virtual village hall where you can ask your questions to a panel of individuals experienced in municipal governance. Visit www.munisask.ca/events to learn more and to register.

Twitter:

Do you have an interest in municipal politics? Have you thought about running for municipal council? Join two free virtual sessions hosted by @munisask on September 1 and 10 to learn about being on municipal council in a village. Learn more at www.munisask.ca/events

Image for Social Media

Virtual sessions for potential municipal election candidates and those that want to learn more or refresh their knowledge of municipal governance.